

Please vote for more diversity in station ownership. We're suffering from a lack of vitality and excitement on the public airways. We need more different voices. Don't give away the public's property to the highest bidder. Don't let the fat cats run your show. Thanks for your considering my opinion. Dick James